

TERRITORY OF GUAM
OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
AGAÑA, GUAM 96910
U.S.A.

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 89-12

ESTABLISHING THE GUAM WAR REPARATIONS COMMISSION

- WHEREAS, the people of Guam suffered the experience of World War II between December 8, 1941 and July 21, 1944; and
- WHEREAS, during these dark years, the people of Guam suffered from the destruction of personal property, the obliteration of their homes and farms, the loss of family members and loved ones, great personal injury and pain, the humiliation of occupation and virtual slavery; and
- WHEREAS, the people of Guam were not combatants in this war, but simply the victims; and
- WHEREAS, the people of Guam still bear the scars of this tragic period even today; and
- WHEREAS, the people of Guam were not citizens of the United States of America during the war years; and
- WHEREAS, the United States of America, without consulting the people of Guam, forgave the Japanese nation for atrocities committed in Guam, never once consulting the people of Guam in this decision; and
- WHEREAS, both the United States and Japan have made war compensation payments to the other Micronesian islands states and nations, including our Chamorro brothers and sisters in the CNMI; and
- WHEREAS, the United States of America has provided compensation to Japanese-Americans who were illegally interned on the west coast of America during World War II; and
- WHEREAS, justice demands that after 45 years the people of Guam, who suffered needlessly and expensively, must be compensated in the same manner that others have been; and
- WHEREAS, the people of Guam cannot be expected to tolerate this injustice indefinitely.
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, JOSEPH F. ADA, Governor of Guam, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Organic Act of Guam, as amended, do hereby create the GUAM WAR REPARATIONS COMMISSION.

EXECUTIVE ORDER
