WHEREAS, the government of Guam recognizes that the foundation of successful global marketing of Guam as a destination requires a well-defined image of our island which promotes Guam's economic assets and quality of life assets in the best possible way; and

WHEREAS, an informal marketing cooperative consisting of marketing, promotional, or public information officers of various government of Guam agencies has begun preliminary work on a "Guam image", and have identified our island's most outstanding promotable assets at this time to be: our culture, pristine environment, geographic location, political stability, territorial status as U.S., modern business climate, U.S. accredited education, developed infrastructure, advanced technology, international air and sea transportation hub status, and more; and

WHEREAS, the assets which make up the "Guam image" must be developed into a long-term, global marketing campaign which is unified, recognizable, and competitive in order to attract visitors, students, investors, and new businesses to Guam to promote a prosperous economy; and

WHEREAS, in order to develop a long-term campaign in a unified manner and to promote island-wide use of the campaign in all off-shore marketing, the government agencies which have an interest in off-shore marketing must work together to ensure that the developed campaign incorporates an effective and unified message;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, CARL T. C. GUTIERREZ, Governor of Guam, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Organic Act do order:
