GOVERNMENT OF GUAM
Office of the Governor
Agana, Guam

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 61-f

REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE MINIMUM WAGE AND HOUR ACT OF GUAM

WHEREAS, Section 45013, Government Code of Guam authorizes the Minimum Wage Commissioner to make such regulations as are required or appropriate to carry out the provisions of Title XLII, Government Code of Guam, "The Minimum Wage and Hour Act of Guam", subject to the approval of the Governor; and

WHEREAS, the Commissioner, following public hearing held on April 21, 1961, has prescribed Rules I through VIII providing for the administration and enforcement of the Act.

NOW, THEREFORE, pursuant to the foregoing, the attached rules, as prescribed by the Minimum Wage Commissioner, are hereby approved and promulgated, and shall be in effect as of the date of this Order.

Dated at Agana, Guam, this 17th day of May, 1961.

JOSEPH FLORES
Governor of Guam

COUNTERSIGNED:

HAROLD W. BURSETT
Assistant Secretary
GOVERNMENT OF GUAM
Department of Labor and Personnel
Wage and Hour Division

REGULATIONS

GOVERNING THE ADMINISTRATION OF THE
MINIMUM WAGE AND HOUR ACT OF GUAM (TITLE XLII, GOVERNMENT CODE OF GUAM)

AGANA, GUAM
REGULATIONS OF THE
WAGE AND HOUR DIVISION, DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND PERSONNEL
GOVERNMENT OF GUAM
AGANA, GUAM

Under and by virtue of the authority conferred upon the Minimum Wage Commissioner by Title XLII, Government Code of Guam, and every other power thereunto enabling, the Commissioner does hereby prescribe, subject to approval by the Governor and promulgation by Executive Order, the following regulations, having the force and effect of law, relating to the administration and enforcement of the Minimum Wage and Hour Act of Guam, Title XLII, Government Code of Guam:

Rule I. Definitions

For the purposes of the Minimum Wage and Hour Act of Guam:

(a) The terms "individual employed...in a bona fide executive, administrative or supervisory capacity" shall mean any individual--

(1) whose primary duty consists of the management of the enterprise in which he is employed or of a customarily recognized department or subdivision thereof; and

(2) who customarily and regularly directs the work of two or more other employees therein; and

(3) who has the authority to hire or fire other employees or whose suggestions and recommendations as to the hiring or firing and as to the advancement and promotion or any other change of status of other employees will be given particular weight; and

(4) who customarily and regularly exercises discretionary powers; and

(5) who does not devote more than 20 percent of his hours worked in the week to activities which are not directly and closely related to the performance of the work described in paragraphs (1) through (4) of this section; provided, however, that this paragraph (5) shall not apply in the case of an employee who is in sole charge of an independent establishment or a physically separated branch establishment, or who owns at least 20 percent interest in the enterprise in which he is employed; and

(6) who is compensated for his services on a salary basis at a rate of not less than $500.00 per month inclusive of the reasonable cost to the employer of board, lodging or other facilities.

(b) The term "individual employed...in a bona fide professional capacity" shall mean any individual--

(1) whose primary duty consists of the performance of work--

(a) requiring knowledge of an advanced type in a field of science or learning customarily acquired by a prolonged course of specialized intellectual instruction and study (as distinguished from a general academic education, and from an apprenticeship, and from training in the performance of routine manual, mental, manual, or physical processes), or

(b) original and creative in character in a recognized field of artistic endeavor (as opposed to work which can be produced by a person endowed with general manual or intellectual ability and training), and the result of which depends primarily on the invention, imagination, or talent of the employee.
(C) The term "individual employed...in the capacity of outside salesman" shall mean any individual--

(1) who is employed for the purpose of and who is customarily and regularly engaged away from his employer's place or places of business in--

(a) making sales, which shall mean the transfer of title to both tangible and intangible property, or

(b) obtaining orders or contracts for services or for the use of facilities for which a consideration will be paid by the client or customer; and

(2) whose hours of work of a nature other than that described on paragraphs (1) (a) or (1) (b) of this subsection do not exceed 20 percent of the hours worked in the workweek by non-exempt employees of the employer. Exempt work shall include work performance incidental to and in conjunction with the employee's own outside sales or solicitations.

(D) The term "individual employed...as an outside collector" shall mean any individual--

(1) who is employed for the purpose of and who is customarily and regularly engaged away from his employer's place or places of business in--

(a) collecting money for goods or services previously or presently furnished by his employer, or

(b) collecting money for an account placed in the hands of his employer for collection; and

(2) whose hours of work of a nature other than that described in paragraphs (1) (a) or (1) (b) of this section do not exceed 20 percent of the hours worked in the workweek by non-exempt employees of the employer. Exempt work shall include work performed incidental to and in conjunction with the employee's own outside collections.

(E) The term "retail store" shall mean any store in which goods or commodities in small quantities or parcels are sold at retail or directly to the consumer.

(F) The term "grocery store" shall mean any store in which tea, sugar, spices, coffee, fruits, and various other commodities, chiefly food stuffs, are sold.

(G) The term "gasoline station" shall mean a retail station for gasoline and oil.

(H) The term "restaurant" shall mean any establishment where refreshments or meals may be procured by the public.

(I) The terms "laundry establishment" and "dry-cleaning establishment" shall mean any establishment or place used in the business of washing, sorting, washing, drying, starching, ironing or cleaning wearing apparel, household linens and other articles with solvents, including any establishment providing laundering equipment for use by customers for a fee known by various terms such as laundromat, wash-o-mat, or laundrette.
(J) The term "bakery" shall mean a place where bakery products are made or sold at retail.

(K) The terms "barber shop" and "beauty parlor" shall mean any establishment or place wherein any of the following is practiced for compensation:

1. Shaving, clipping, trimming, or cutting the human hair.
2. Singeing, shampooing, arranging, adorning, dressing, curling, waving, permanent waving, tinting or dyeing the human hair or apply hair tonics.
3. Giving facial, scalp, neck, or body massages or treatments with oils, creams, lotions, or other preparations either by hand or mechanical appliances.
4. Applying cosmetic preparations, antiseptics, powders, oils, clays, lotions, or other preparations to scalp, face, neck or hands.
5. Manicuring or pedicuring.

(L) "Sheltered workshop" or "workshop" means a charitable organization or institution conducted not for profit, but for the purpose of carrying out a recognized program of rehabilitation for individuals whose earning capacity is impaired by age or physical or mental deficiency or injury, and of providing such individuals with remunerative employment or other occupational rehabilitative activity of an educational or therapeutic nature.

(M) "Handicapped client" or "client" means an individual whose earning capacity is impaired by age or physical or mental deficiency or injury, and who is being served in accordance with the recognized rehabilitation program of a sheltered workshop within the facilities of such agency or in or about the house of a client.

(N) A "learner" or "student-learner" is a student who is receiving instruction in an accredited school, college or university and who is employed on a part-time basis, pursuant to a bona fide vocational program.

(O) "Apprentice" means a worker who is employed to learn a skilled trade as defined in Rule I, Section (P), and in conformity with or substantial conformity with the standards of apprenticeship as set forth in Rule I, Section (Q).

(P) A "bona fide vocational training program" is one authorized and approved by the Territorial Diversified Occupations Advisory Council or other recognized educational body and provides for part-time employment training which may be scheduled for a part of the work day or work week, for alternating weeks or for other limited periods during the year, supplemented by and integrated with a definitely organized plan of instruction designed to teach technical knowledge and related industrial information given as a regular part of the student-learner's course by an accredited school, college or university.

(Q) An apprenticeship program must conform with or substantially conform with the following standards of apprenticeship before the Commissioner or his authorized representative will issue a special certificate authorizing employment of an apprentice under such program at wages lower than the minimum wage applicable under Section 65005 of the Act:

1. Employment and training of the apprentice in a skilled trade. A skilled trade is an apprenticeable occupation which satisfies the criteria set forth in Rule I, Section (R).
2. Two or more years (4,000 or more hours) of work experience.
JH:O!

(3) A progressively increasing schedule of wages to be paid the apprentice which averages at least 50 per centum of the journeyman's rate over the period of apprenticeship.

(5) A schedule of work processes or operation in which experience is to be given the apprentice on the job.

(2) Adequate facilities for training and supervision of the apprentice and the keeping of appropriate records concerning his progress.

(6) Related instruction, if available. (164 hours a year is considered necessary). Related instruction means an organized and systematic form of instruction which is designed to provide the apprentice with knowledge of the theoretical and technical subjects related to his trade. Such instruction may be given in a classroom, through correspondence courses, or other forms of self-study.)

(R) A skilled trade is an apprenticeable occupation which possesses all of the following characteristics:

(1) Is customarily learned in a practical way through training and work experience on the job.

(2) Is clearly identified and commonly recognized throughout an industry.

(3) Requires 2 or more years (6,000 or more hours) of work experience to learn.

(6) Requires related instruction to supplement the work experience (which instruction may be provided in accordance with Rule I, Section (Q), Subsection (6)).

(5) Is not merely a part of an apprenticeable occupation.

(6) Involves the development of skill sufficiently broad to be applicable in like occupations throughout an industry, rather than of restricted application to the products of any one company.

(7) Does not fall into any of the following categories:

(a) Selling, retailing, or similar occupations in the distributive field.

(b) Managerial occupations.

(c) Clerical occupations.

(d) Professional and semiprofessional occupations (this category covers occupations for which entrance requirements customarily include education of college level).

Rule II. Employees employed in activities incidental, minor, or subsidiary to the principal activity.

(A) The provisions of Sections 45004 and 45005, Government Code of Guam, shall not apply to employees employed in activities incidental, minor, or subsidiary to the principal exempt activity; provided that such employees devote not more than 25 per centum of their hours worked in the workweek to nonexempt work; and provided further, that the total weekly dollar volume of sales of goods or services by such employees is not more than 25 per centum of the total weekly dollar volume of sales of goods or services of the principal activity.
Rule III. Handicapped clients in sheltered workshops, learners and apprentices.

(A) The provisions of Sections 45004 and 45005, Government Code of Guam, shall not apply to handicapped clients in sheltered workshops, learners or apprentices; provided, application for a special license, on forms to be provided by the Minimum Wage Commissioner is made by the employer of such handicapped clients, learners or apprentices for wages lower than the minimum wage rate provided by Section 45004.

Rule IV. Employers' Records

(A) Every employer shall maintain and keep records in English containing the following information and data on each employee to whom Section 45004 and 45005, Government Code of Guam, apply:

(1) name in full, and also an identifying symbol or number if such is used in place of or in addition to a name on any record kept by the employer relating to such employee.

(2) home address

(3) date of birth

(4) occupation

(5) rate of pay and length of pay period

(6) hours worked each workday and total hours worked each workweek

(7) total daily or weekly straight-time earnings or wages

(8) total weekly overtime compensation

(9) total additions to or deductions from wages paid each pay period

(10) total wages paid each pay period, date of payment, and pay period covered

(B) Such records shall be preserved by the employer for a period of at least six years.

Rule V. Reasonable cost of Board, Lodging or Other Facilities

(A) The reasonable cost to the employer of furnishing an employee with board, lodging or other facilities is hereby determined to be the actual cost of operation and maintenance, including adequate depreciation, plus an allowance not exceeding 5% per centum for interest on the depreciated amount of capital invested by the employer. Reasonable cost shall not include a profit to the employer or to any affiliated person.

(B) The cost of operation and maintenance, the rate of depreciation, and the depreciated amount of capital invested by the employer shall be those arrived at by good and proper accounting practices in the Territory of Guam. The term "good and proper accounting practices in the territory of Guam" shall not include accounting practices which have been rejected by the Income Tax Division of the Department of Finance, or by the Bureau of Internal Revenue, U. S. Department of Treasury, for income tax purposes. The term "depreciation" shall include obsolescence.
(C) For the purposes of the Minimum Wage and Hour Act of Guam the cost of furnishing facilities which are primarily for the benefit or convenience of the employer are not to be included as wages. The following list of such facilities is illustrative rather than exclusive:

1. Tools of the trade and other materials and services incidental to carrying on the employer's business.
2. Uniforms and their laundering, where the nature of the business requires the employee to wear a uniform.
3. Company transportation from company to work site and return.

Rule VI. Reduction of Wages

No employer shall reduce a wage paid by him which is in excess of the minimum wage under the Minimum Wage and Hour Act of Guam for the purpose of evading the overtime provisions of Section 45005, Government Code of Guam.

Rule VII. Payment of Wages

(A) Except as provided for by Section 45030, Government Code of Guam, the earned wages of all employees shall be due and payable within seven days after the end of each pay period.

(B) In the case of a dispute over wages resulting in, or existing at the time of, termination of employment, the employer shall give notice to the employees of the amount of wages which he concedes to be due and the same shall be payable without any conditions whatsoever at the time fixed by Section 45030, Government Code of Guam, and the acceptance by the employees of such payment shall not constitute a release or accord and satisfaction with respect to the disputed amount.

(C) No person shall deduct or retain any part or portion of any compensation earned by any employee except where required by federal or territorial statute or by court process or when such deductions are authorized in writing by the employee.

Rule VIII. Display of Posters

Every employer shall display posters containing provisions of the Minimum Wage and Hour Act of Guam in conspicuous places on his premises as furnished by the Commissioner.

Rule IX. Effective Date

These rules shall take effect upon promulgation by Executive Order.

Dated at Agana, Guam this 17th day of May, 1961.
