

GOVERNMENT OF GUAM
Office of the Governor
Agana, Guam

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 62-6

TEMPORARY REGULATION, RATES AND REGULATIONS,
COMMERCIAL PORT OF GUAM

WHEREAS, on March 16, 1962, various maritime Unions commenced a strike against the Pacific Maritime Association; and

WHEREAS, the courts, through the invoking of the provisions of the Taft-Hartley Act by President John F. Kennedy, enjoined said strike April 11, 1962; and

WHEREAS, the health and welfare of the people of Guam depend upon the continuous receipt of imported goods from the mainland of the United States; and

WHEREAS, the 80-day, cooling-off period of the injunction was to have expired on June 30, 1962, and settlement of the strike during the period was uncertain; and

WHEREAS, the Government of Guam encouraged and requested importers to increase their normal orders of imports during the 80-day period to meet the situation should the strike be resumed; and

WHEREAS, the importers did so increase their orders of imports commencing with the goods which arrived on the Canada Bear May 12, 1962; and

WHEREAS, the arrival of such imports in Guam necessarily overburdened the normal procedures for the pickup of cargo at the Commercial Port; and

WHEREAS, there is sufficient storage space to handle additional cargo at the Commercial Port in this situation; and

WHEREAS, Section 7.1 of the Rates and Regulations of the Commercial Port of Guam presently authorizes seven (7) days of free storage after landing, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, holidays, and nonworking weather days, which period was and is insufficient to move the abnormal shipments of cargo that have been received and which will likely be received due to the strike; and

WHEREAS, Section 14101, Government Code of Guam, authorizes the Director of Commerce to make, alter, amend and repeal rules, regulations, fees and rates as required in the operation of the Commercial Port of Guam; and

WHEREAS, the aforesaid Section 14101, Government Code of Guam, provides that such rules, regulations, fees and rates shall have the force and effect of law after approval and promulgation by the Governor by executive order;

NOW, THEREFORE, by virtue of the foregoing, the attached Temporary Regulation, as adopted by the Director of Commerce, is hereby approved and promulgated, effective May 12, 1962, and shall terminate and be of no further force or effect as of the 2nd day of July, 1962.

Dated at Agana, Guam, this 27th day of June, 1962.

BILL DANIEL
Governor of Guam

COUNTERSIGNED:

MANUEL F. L. GUERRERO
Secretary of Guam

GOVERNMENT OF GUAM
Commercial Port of Guam
Rates and Regulations

TEMPORARY REGULATION

Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 7.1 of the Rates and Regulations of the Commercial Port of Guam, the Commercial Port Manager may, in his discretion, extend the free storage period of seven (7) days thereon afforded import cargo for an additional period or periods, not to exceed a total of twenty-one (21) days of free storage, to accommodate cargo which he determines to have been specially imported to meet the situation arising out of the strike against the Pacific Maritime Association by various maritime Unions. This regulation and the Commercial Port Manager's authority hereunder is applicable to any such qualified cargo heretofore discharged, but not prior to May 12, 1962, and shall expire the 2nd day of July, 1962.

ADOPTION

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Director of Commerce by Section 14101, Government Code of Guam, the foregoing Temporary Regulation is hereby adopted effective upon approval and promulgation by the Governor by executive order.

Dated this 27th day of June, 1962.

J. D. LEON GUERRERO
Director of Commerce
