

More Officers and Officials to be Hired Next Fiscal Year

Next fiscal year, the government is slated to hire at least 38 new public safety officers. Agencies where there will be openings for new recruits over the next year are:

- Guam Police Department
  - Next fiscal year, at least 18 police officer trainees will be hired. Governor Calvo has directed his fiscal policy team to find more funding to hire more police officers.
- Department of Corrections
  - Next fiscal year, DOC plans on hiring 5 new corrections recruits and two medical professionals (chemical dependency treatment specialist and psychiatric technician). DOC expects some corrections officers to retire next year. They will use their salaries to hire up to 13 new corrections officers.
