

CHAMORRO EXHIBIT POSTPONED

A release from the Governor's Office w Contact Janna Fernandez at 475-6911 or janna.fernandez@guam.gov

The opening of the Hinenngen Chamorro exhibit scheduled for Saturday, March 1, 2014 at Government House has been rescheduled because of uncertainty with the weather. Governor Eddie Calvo and First Lady Christine M.S. Calvo encourage all Guamanians to be safe throughout the weekend and to be aware of hazardous weather conditions.

The Governor and First Lady remain excited to host the Chamorro heritage event and invite all Guamanians and visitors to join them for the rescheduled opening event. The Hinenngen Chamorro exhibit will officially open to the public at Government House on Friday, March 7, 2014 at 10 a.m.

For more information about Hinenngen Chamorro, please call 475-9353.

End of Release