"The safety and security of Guamanians is a top priority for the Calvo Tenorio administration. Pedro Leon Guerrero has done a fantastic job wearing two hats for our administration, but we need him to focus his efforts at Guam Customs. We're excited about Ambrosio Constantino returning to the public sector with his leadership experience in security, and military intelligence.

CALVO APPOINTS NEW MILITARY AND INTELLIGENCE-COMMUNITY VETERAN FOR GUAM HOMELAND SECURITY ADVISOR:

Governor Eddie B. Calvo appointed Ambrosio D. Constantino Jr., as the new Guam Homeland Security Advisor (HSA) today.

BACKGROUND IN SECURITY AND INTELLIGENCE:

Prior to his appointment, Constantino served as an Anti-terrorism Program Manager for the Guam National Guard under the Department of Military Affairs, and a Commissioned Army Officer stationed twice in Korea and Washington State. He was also deployed to Operation Desert Storm.

During his tenure in the Guam National Guard, he served as Brigade Executive Officer/Intelligence Officer and the Executive Officer/Intelligence Officer during Operation Balikatan in the Philippines.
