Jayne

I won't even begin to comment on how inappropriate it was for you to post on a government web page information that insults every Christian and Catholic. Not only do you ignore the Dobbs decision, but violated elementary principles of the constitution relative to church and state. I am sure public complaints had you remove it from the bureau's website. It's unfortunate you keep it on your personal Facebook page since it does absolutely nothing to support any respectful dialogue. As a Catholic and Christian I and many found it insulting. Honestly, how does that post have anything to do with advancing your beliefs in the killing of babies?

Thank you also for the post you put on a government website advertising pharmacies selling abortion pills. It is just the beginning Jane but it took one phone call for one of those pharmacies this morning to pull them off the shelves and destroy them. Thanks to your advertisement, the pro-life owners of this company became aware their pharmacies were selling baby killing medication and immediately destroyed them.

Calls and emails go out tonight to the other owners of these pharmacies you promote without their authorization. This action and hundreds of others you have undertaken to abort babies violate every single sentence of your agency's enabling statute. What does recruiting abortionist and fostering abortions and providing tax payers with information about purchasing baby killing medication have anything whatsoever to do with any of the purposes of your agency provided by law?

Your consumption of abortion and focus on it without any reference at all to that baby that has its own right to life is troubling especially when your personal beliefs are being unlawfully carried out by a government agency the taxpayers of Guam pay for.

We have now read numerous documents that you have written and responses to each of your writings written in your capacity as the Director of the Bureau of Women's Affairs. It is time that members of our community initiate legal action seeking an injunction from you and the Bureau continuing to foster killing babies since you have no legal authority to do so.

You will not even sit down for a reasonable conversation. I hope soon a taxpayer lawsuit be initiated to dissolve your bureau.
